The Official 'Dont Tread On Me' Outfitters

THANK YOU for Ordering

Thank you for spreading the history of the DTOM-flags.

The Gadsden, Culpeper, and First US Navy Jack flags are an important foundation of our Constitution and Country!

Continuing The Heritage

Since colonial days, the rattlesnake has been used to portray the spirit of Americans. In 1751, Benjamin Franklin published a political essay describing the 13 American colonies as a snake divided reminding us of the danger of disunity.

In 1774, Colonel Gadsden of the Revolutionary Army emphasized this by printing the legend "DONT TREAD ON ME" on his flag.

The words swept the nation. The Culpeper Minutemen chose the coiled snake ready to strike and the words from Gadsden's flag, but then raised another defiant ant at the enemy by adding "LIBERTY OR DEATH."

The coiled snake might seem a strange symbol today, but it is effective. NO PERSON WHO EVER SEES IT FORGETS - AND THAT'S JUST THE KIND OF MESSAGE THE REVOLUTIONARIES WANTED TO SEND....

-United Now Alive and Free -Firm on this Basis Liberty Shall Stand -And Thus Supported Ever Bless Our Land -Till Time Becomes Eternity
